

Corey Greenhalgh

Attn: Hiring Manager

Please accept my resume in hopes of gaining employment riding pens at your feedlot. I am a former student of Olds College (2008-2010) in Olds Alberta where I took the Agriculture production and management program, with a farm and ranch major.

From previous employment I learned skills associated with the handling and care of both purebred and commercial cattle. I have experience in both cow/calf and feedlot operations. I have excellent herd health management and cattle handling skills on foot and horseback. I also have the ability to run various types of farm machinery and heavy equipment.

I feel with the experience and skills I do have I would be an asset to your feedlot. With a passion for cattle and agriculture I am a very motivated, hardworking and reliable person who wants to soak up as much knowledge as I can. Please feel free to contact me by phone (250) 457-9138 or email c_d2011@hotmail.ca

Sincerely,

Corey Greenhalgh
